Description: The hope-filled sequel to the bestselling One Tuesday Morning In this new novel by Karen Kingsbury, three years have passed since the terrorist attacks on New York City. Jamie Bryan, widow of a firefighter who lost his life on that terrible day, has found meaning in her season of loss by volunteering at St. Paul's, the memorial chapel across the street...

Review: Love at first sight is definitely possible. God put Clay in the right place at the right time. Jamie was in trouble. I loved the way the feelings between them was intertwined with the sadness of 911. It was a very moving story of something this country can never forget. It was sad that Jamies husband who was killed as a firefighter in the towers...
